

Reception For Grand Officers

An invitation to all sojourning members of the Order of Amaranth and their friends is extended by the Royal Matron, Honored Lady Marguerite Morgan; Royal Patron, Sir Knight Edward Morgan and the members of Lomita Court No. 61, to attend the public reception honoring Honored Lady Dorothy Davis, District Deputy Grand Royal Matron and Sir Knight Gordon Mothersell, Grand Representative of the State of New York.

The reception will be held Thursday evening, Oct. 13, in the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Master of Ceremonies Past Royal Patron Eugene E. Meyer, states that Supreme Council Officers, Grand Court Officers and many other prominent members of the Order are expected to be present for the event.

Decorations and refreshments by Past Royal Matron Gladys Mothersell and her committee will provide additional enjoyment.

Jobies Camp Fund Aided By Mothers

Mothers club of Job's Daughters Bethel 50 held a cosmetic party last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Willys Blount, 1444 El Prado as a way and means to replenish the camp fund. Mrs. Paul Bischoff was co-hostesses. The cosmetic sale was planned by Mrs. Charles Jackson, president.

As another way and means project the mothers are serving the monthly Chamber of Commerce breakfasts under the direction of Mrs. George Crabtree.

On Nov. 2 at the Blount home, the group will hold a salad luncheon at 11 a.m., and an apron party is planned for spring.

The slate of officers will be presented at the Nov. 9 meeting.

Council Tea Welcomes Newcomers

First annual "Get Acquainted Tea" was held at St. Philomena Catholic School, 21900 Main St., on Sunday, Oct. 9. Mrs. Mike Marinovich, school co-ordinator, introduced the members of the school board and the president of the Women's Council, Mrs. Gene LeRoy, who in turn invited all those attending to the next regular meeting of the council to be held in the school hall on Monday, Oct. 24.

Hostesses at the afternoon affair were Meses. William Cary, Howard DeCastro, Albert Gagne, Ed Germany, Harold Gondringer, William Hopkins, Theodore Olson, Jose Ortiz, and John Rubio.

Pouring were Meses. Walter Eilers and Paul Ferrara. In charge of decorations was Mrs. Robert Turner assisted by Meses. Walter Eilers and Mike Marinovich. Mrs. Robert Turner registered the guests.

The women were also reminded of the Halloween Carnival to be held on the school grounds, 21900 Main St., on Sunday, Oct. 30, from 1 to 5 p.m. There will be game booths, a white elephant booth, and bake goods will be sold. A taco dinner will be served and hot dogs, hamburgers, and coffee and soft drinks will be sold.

Refreshments will be served at the board meeting, Oct. 17, and the regular council meeting, Oct. 24, by members of St. Mark's Guild under the leadership of Mrs. Howard DeCastro and Mrs. Keith Englehardt.

Membership Events Set

Mrs. Frank Vom Steeg, 2625 Border Ave., Torrance, as project chairman of the Southern California district of United Foursquare Women, is participating this month in the six areawide fall membership luncheons of the church women's organization.

The local resident revealed that to carry out the theme of the 1960 event, "Through the Years," women have been invited to come dressed in attire of that worn at the turn of the century.

Luncheon gathering to include members from chapters in this area is slated for Thursday, Nov. 3, at the First Foursquare Church of South Gate, says Mrs. Vom Steeg.

Mrs. Loren Noyes, Glendale, Southern California chapters' chairman, will preside over the spiritual emphasis of the gatherings, which are to be followed with a "general store" sale at which members will sell items of their own handiwork, canned goods and home made dishes, Mrs. Vom Steeg disclosed. Proceeds from the sales are to be directed into the organization's missionary fund.

Delta Zetas Meet Oct. 19

The regular monthly meeting of the South Bay chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will be held Wednesday, Oct. 19, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Harry G. Forrester, 520 31st St., Hermosa Beach.

The evening program will feature a demonstration on the latest fashions in jewelry. Interested Delta Zeta alumnae in the South Bay area may make reservations by calling Mrs. William H. Spencer.

Local Woman Panel Member

Mrs. Mabel Beltz, 124 West 214th St., Torrance, will participate in the panel discussion sponsored by the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants at the Huntington-Sheraton, Pasadena, on Saturday, Oct. 15, 1960 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Her topic will be "Your Social Security; Pension Trusts." The session deals with "Manage your income—Secure it—Spend it—Save it."

This study session is held twice a year by the Los Angeles Chapter, and is also sponsored throughout the United States by this professional accounting group.
